Ex-Governor Harding of Iowa Makes Short Talk at Jinks Sale

Fifty head of Big Type Poland China hogs averaged $30 a head at A. Line Jinks' sale near New Salem Wednesday, which was attended by William L. Harding, former governor of Iowa, who was in Rushville for a political address. Mr. Harding made a short talk and attempted to tell the hog buyers that Iowa has 91 counties that all rank with Rush county in hogs and corn.

Many buyers from a distance were present for the sale and spoke well of the hog industry in Rush county. A number of them stated that they knew Rush county as soon as they came to the border by the hog and hog houses in the fields.
